United Game Tech realizes another successful capital increase

Malta, April 28th, 2017 – United Game Tech plc, a technology company and leading sports betting operator, executed another capital increase as announced for 2017. A total of 1.34 million shares were placed at an issue price of EUR 1.00 per share. The gross issuing proceeds therefore total EUR 1.34 million. The new shares were issued to long-term oriented, strategic investors and are subject to a lock-up period of 12 months.

Alexander Zucker, CEO of United Game Tech plc: “We are very pleased with the trust that our new strategic investors have placed in us. Their long-term interest, specific know-how and contacts will help us further expand our position in the European sports betting market in the future. We will invest a portion of the proceeds from the capital increase in our proprietary technology and are confident that we will soon be able to present some exciting innovations. Another part will go towards marketing. Moreover, we are planning to increase our revenue significantly via acquisitions in the medium term.”

Via its subsidiaries, United Game Tech operates retail and online sports betting offers under the brands digiBet and bancobet in Germany, Austria and Belgium. The proprietary software solution is also operated as a white-label solution under the bancobet brand via a locally regulated licensing partner in Romania. More than 1,000 machines at over 300 points of sale are connected to the United Game Tech Group's system. The shares in United Game Tech have been listed on the Berlin stock exchange since March 31st, 2017.
